Ladies of The G. A. R.

(Tune:—Maryland, My Maryland.)

Composed and dedicated to Ladies of the G. A. R., By Mabel C. Childers, 112 S. Boot St., Marion, Ind.

Who grow each day in all our land?

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Who strive to be a chosen band?

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Who love the patriot's peace he won?

Who share the service well begun,
And from the burdens will not run?

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Who love the Red, White and Blue?

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Who're to our country ever true?

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Whose arms are strong, who labor long,

To teach our youth the right from wrong?

Whose message speaks in prose and song?

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Who cheer the ailing, help the poor?

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Extend the aged an open door?

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Oh, Ladies, may our precepts grow,

'Til other nations learn to know,

How seeds of love and peace to sow,

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Who stay the Veteran's falt'ring step?

Ladies of the G. A. R.

His deeds of valor ne'er forget?

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Oh, Ladies, may our emblem wave

O'er Church and School and Home and Grave,

The banner thousands died to save,

Ladies of the G. A. R.

Department President

The guard announced a quartet from George H. Thomas Post, Indianapolis, in waiting at the door. Business was suspended and they were admitted. The quartet were Gen. B. A. Richardson, M. D. Butler, S. L. Potter and Frank C. Huston. Frances McClure, a member of T. W. Bennett Circle was their accompanist. We were given two splendid songs, "I'll try to raise my boy to be a Hero," and "Bonnie Flag."

Senior Vice-President Mary Brown, being absent Junior Vice-President Emma Schneider, was called to the chair while the Department President gave her address:

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

To the Officers and Members of the Twenty-third Annual Convention, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic:

My Dear Sisters:—One year ago, you conferred upon me the highest honor in our organization in electing me your president, which I appreciated very much. I accepted that honor, feeling the responsibility, and resolved, with God's help, I would do the very best I could to be true and loyal to the obligation I assumed, and, at the close of my year's work I can say, I have done my duty as best I saw it, at all times.

The work has been pleasant, as a whole, and the duties that have been a little hard to perform, were only little clouds that disappeared and most times left a silver lining.

On entering upon my duties, I found Gen. Wallace Circle, No. 33 at Pine Village, in a very weak condition, in fact, couldn't get enough out for a quorum, and I have tried in many different ways to get them interested, but as yet there are no visible results.

Gen. Thomas Circle, No. 25, at Monroeville, which was suspended last year, has manifested a desire to reorganize, but on account of so much sickness, has been unable to do so as yet. I have received several encouraging letters and feel my successor will be able to reorganize this circle soon..

I was almost ready to grant a charter to 25 ladies but on thorough investigation felt it would reflect nothing good upon our work and I had said, when I first took the work, if any new Circles were organized, I would desire quality before quantity. We are at a place in our history, where we must build on a good and firm foundation, that we may not only instill Patriotism, but true character-building in our work; and that has been and is my motto—that we may place each Circle on a good foundation, and the work will progress in the right spirit.

I have written 679 letters, have inspected 14 Circles and visited 6 other Circles and I find the work progressing in a pleasing manner, most every place, and with many active workers. This is very pleasing to us, for we are in need of that kind of members these uncertain days of our Nation, not knowing what the rise of the morning sun will bring forth, and it behooves us to be very loyal to our cause.

I had the pleasure of witnessing the organizing of a camp of Sons' of Veterans of nearly 50 members at Logansport a short time ago, and what was also pleasing to me was the fact, it was instituted by our Dept. Organizer, Pearl Wright. The same night, all that were not members of our order received our obligation, and we are very proud of them.

I am pleased to report a gain of 246 members. While I have not accomplished what I had hoped to, if I have made one Circle stronger or better in any way I feel well repaid.

My year's work has given me many pleasures that I will be always pleased to remember, and those who have so courteously entertained me in their homes, I thank very kindly. To Comrade A. C. McCorkle and wife, of Lafayette, who have been so kind as to make me feel their home was open all hours to me, in entertaining me day and night and lending every possible aid to our work, I am deeply grateful.

To my Counselor, who has been so ready at all times to help me, and my dear Secretary and Treasurer, who have been so competent in their respective duties, I tender my grateful thanks.

Last but not the least of my pleasures were my visits to the Knightstown Home and our National Encampment at Washington, D. C., which would take days to tell about.

I shall miss, more than words can express, the many kind letters I have received and will assure you the many friends that have stood by me so loyally will never be forgotten, and I trust you will be just as loyal to our cause and to my successor as you have been in the past year to me.

I desire to remain loyally yours in F. C. and L.

MAE LONBERGER,

Dept. President.

A motion carried that this excellent report, and all other reports, be accepted and placed in the hands of the proper committee.

Reports of Senior Vice-President, Junior Vice-President, Chaplain and Department Secretary were presented as follows:

In the correspondence of this office, I have sent out to all proper persons the National and Department Orders, and all official blanks, and have written more than two hundred letters.

One of the pleasant memories of my year's work was the privilege of spending Christmas Eve and Morning with the children of the Knightstown Home, and helping to distribute the 500 boxes of candy given by this department.

This candy was put into the boxes at the home of Comrade and Sister McCorkle where Sisters Edna Davis, Julia McCorkle, Department President Mae Lonberger and myself spent the greater part of one day, filling, labeling, and packing these boxes.

Then came two comrades from John A. Logan Post to our assistance, Andrew Jackson and Samuel Walker, to nail up the four large boxes and start them on their way.

In conclusion, I just want to say, that the many messages of good cheer from the members and circles of this department were gratefully received. I shall remember with much appreciation all the acts of kindness shown me the past year.

Yours in F. C. and L.

ELIZABETH HOWEY

Dept. Secretary.

R. E. HOLLIS, Dept. Treas.

The guard reported that a committee from the G. A. R., was in waiting. They were escorted to the platform, introduced and seated. This committee was composed of Col. A. B. Crampton, Governor of the National Soldiers' Home, Marion, Indiana; W. N. Pickerill, Indianapolis; and Major Henry B. Sparks, of Rising Sun. Col. Crampton, a member of our order gave a splendid address, highly complimentary to the Ladies of the G. A. R., so much so, that Comrades Pickerill and Sparks decided to be members, and were at once obligated. All were presented with badges and carnations.

Dept. Pres. Amanda Cabell, of Kentucky and Tennessee, and Sister Maria Wilson, of Henderson, Ky., where then introduced by Past Dept. Pres. Jennie Irvine. Both gave intresting talks of our work in their department. Sister Cabell closed her remarks by saying—

“We Live Americans

We Are Americans

And We Die Americans.”

Department President then read a communication from the chief of the staff and chief marshal of Evansville, asking that all national department officers of all Patriotic organizations be at stated places, to take automobiles for the parade.

By motion, business was suspended while U. S. Grant Circle, No. 19, of Washington, exemplified the ritualistic work. With Sister Margaret Padget as their president the work was given in a very beautiful and pleasing manner, and with much credit to both the circle and our order. Memorial services followed.

This service was opened by singing “Rock of Ages,” and prayer by the chaplain, each circle as roll was called, gathered around the altar, and while “Near my God to Thee, was played softly, the names of deceased Sisters were called, the Chaplain would read a short passage from 14th chapter of St. John, and the president of that circle would place flowers in memory of the sister that had gone before. The services closed by singing “Blest be the Tie,” and prayer by chaplain.

Committee from Sons of Veterans reported greetings most cordially received. Convention then adjourned until 8 o’clock Thursday morning.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The parade took place at 2 o’clock, in which National and Department officers were given a place. Governor Ralston, Commander Lewis King, and all veterans not able to walk, reviewed the parade from or near the reviewing stand. The parade was a very unusual one, this year. With the Grand Army Boys was the State Centennial Celebration, which made the parade about an hour passing a given point. It showed Indiana’s History from 1816 to 1916. And proved to all visitors that much time and labor had been spent by the citizens of Evansville, to make our stay a very pleasant and enjoyable one.

After the parade a reception was given at Evans Hall for National and Department officials of the various organizations.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

One of the pleasant memories of the Evansville Encampment was the moonlight excursion on the Steamer Hopkins. It was much enjoyed by the nearly nine hundred delegates and friends of the different organizations. The trip was made to Henderson, Kentucky, about twelve miles down the Ohio river. All reported "the best time ever."

THURSDAY MORNING, 8:00 A. M.

Convention opened in regular form. Almost every delegate was in her seat at this early hour. Conductors retired and presented National President Catherine DeLacy Roche and National Treasurer Olive Allison. Department Secretary read the reports of Department Librarian and Registrar. Department Inspector Florence Roberts read her report. Norine Dobbins read the report of the committee that visited the Knightstown Home. These reports follow:

REGISTRAR'S REPORT

To the officers and members of the Twenty-third annual convention, Ladies of the Grand Army.

Dear Sister: I received reports from 22 circles and copied the list of membership consisting of 350 names. Many of the lists from last year were incomplete as some did not give company or full name, as required.

The Circles that did not respond were, Soldier's Home, Logansport, Indianapolis, Aurora, Galveston, Vincennes and Fort Wayne.

Thanking our dear department president for the honor she bestowed upon me, and wishing each circle success in the future,

I am loyally, in F. C. & L.,

PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTOR'S REPORT

To the officers and members of the Twenty-third annual convention, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Dear Sisters: I have the honor to submit the following report. As only 26 circles reported, I cannot give a complete report. Not having much to work with, I have tried to fill the office to the best of my ability, and at all times honestly striven for the upbuilding of our beloved order.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my year's work and am only sorry that I was not able to do more. Have sent to the circles the following leaflets, "Primary lessons on the Flag," "Prophecy of the Flag," "Life and Character of Abraham Lincoln," Patriotic Instructor books and National Hymns.

Memorial Day reports have been very gratifying and generally observed by all circles.

The spirit of love and patriotism is becoming more manifest every year and children are realizing what love of flag and country means, and our National holidays observed with a clear meaning to the children. In my personal work I visited 15 schools and taught the flag salute to 58 children.

Small flags were presented for platform work, and flowers, bulbs, plants and seeds to beautify school yards, and one basket for school festival. I desire to say that I furnished my own stationery. When some circles were a little slow about sending in reports, I sent postals reminding them of the importance of sending in reports before convention.

In closing my report I wish to say that the associations with our Department President, and Department Secretary have been very pleasant. Their letters to me at all times have been very helpful and the cheerful manner in which they responded to me on all occasions have proved not only their willingness to help a sister, but their patriotism and loyalty to our beloved order.

Respectfully submitted in F. C. & L.,

HARRIET M. FUREY

Department Patriotic Instructor.

ORGANIZER'S REPORT

To the officers and members of the Twenty-third annual convention, Ladies of the G. A. R., I wish to submit the following report:

As Organizer sent fifty "Aims and Objects," wrote twenty-five letters to commanders of posts. Visited Red Key and had a circle partially promised when a fire almost took the main portion of the town causing the people to lose interest, but am still waiting for the call to make one more visit in the interest of the Ladies of the Grand Army.

On April 4, 1916, I issued a call to Sons and Grandsons to organize a camp of Sons of Veterans—the call was answered, 42 Sons taking the obligation at which time the Department Commander, A. W. McDaniels, of Valparaiso, mustered in the camp. I begged the commander to hold the Charter open and on the next Wednesday eve May 3, 1916, 104 were enrolled as Charter Members of John A. Logan Camp No. 48.

Submitted in F. C. & L.,

PEARL WRIGHT,

Department Organizer.

REPORT OF VISITING COMMITTEE.

To the Officers and Members of the Twenty-third Convention of the Ladies of the G. A. R., Department of Indiana:

Dear Sisters: November 9, 1915, the Committee consisting of three members of the Ladies of the G. A. R. accompanied by our president and Sister Howard, made a visit of inspection to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home of Knightstown. We were cordially received by the officers in charge and during the two days' visit shown every courtesy.

The Home is located on a farm of two hundred and forty-two acres situated a short distance from the town. There are numerous buildings estimated to be worth $220,687.00 all well equipped for the various needs of the institution. The grounds, a natural woodland, are beautiful, and well kept, with cement walks where needed.

An excellent dinner was served soon after our arrival and then the afternoon was spent in visiting, first the administration building which is occupied by the officers and the girls, for living purposes. The library containing 4,000 volumes and the equipment for the domestic science classes are also in this large comfortable building. We found the living rooms where the divisions of girls meet to read, sew, rest or play under the direction of a governess, home-like and attractive. At the time of our visit there were two hundred and seven girls in the Home.

The school came next. Every grade from kindergarten to second year of high school is taught by competent teachers, required to comply with the state regulations for teachers.

We found the children well mannered and the schools up to the standard of city schools. Besides the training in the common schools, the Home provides opportunity for the boys to be taught farming and gardening, stock raising, care of flowers both out of doors and in the greenhouse, baking, carpentry and cabinet making, (we were shown a beautiful clock case made by boys,) printing and banking. Thus no boy needs to be without means to earn a livelihood. Music, Art and Stenography each have a competent teacher.

The girls learn to cook, sew and keep house and we found them busy and happy.

Mrs. L. A. W. Cumback is personally interested in each girl and boy and showed us the work done by the children and told us of each one's special talents and accomplishments with the enthusiasm and pride of a fond mother. A fine exhibit of basketry, needle-work and school work had just been returned from the Charity Conference and we had opportunity to examine it.

It is a rare treat to see more than five hundred girls and boys march into a dining room large enough to seat them in an orderly manner to the music of a drum. The girls sat on one side of the room and the boys on the other. The older children serve the younger and then themselves, after all return thanks, in concert. The food is wholesome and well prepared and the menus are changed every day. We ate our evening meal in the state dining room with the officers and other guests, and afterward sat on the veranda and listened to a band concert given by the famous Knightstown Boys' Band. At its close we were invited to the parlor where a company of girls and boys entertained us with music, both instrumental and vocal, and recitations of a high grade. The day had been pleasantly and profitably spent and we were ready to seek our pillows.

MARY EMMA BROWN
Department Senior Vice President

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE
AND THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

A whistle aroused us at an early hour the next morning and we sought the privilege of seeing the children at breakfast before we ate ours.

The greenhouse, bakery, laundry, tailor shop, printing office and kitchens were visited and each was found to be in order and equipped for its special work.

A fine "pig palace" had just been completed and we found something up to date and really wonderful. It was built from specincations furnished by Purdue University.

The hospital, where the children under three years of age have a nursery and where the sick are cared for, is in charge of a trained nurse and her helpers. There is very little sickness at the Home, owing to the location, regular habits of the children and wholesome food.

The boys' divisions living apartments were shown to us and we wished that all homeless boys might have such comfortable sitting rooms and nice clean beds and kind supervisors.

In a large chapel Sunday School at ten o'clock and preaching service at two constitute the Sunday religious services. One of the pastors from Knightstown or a visiting minister conducts the preaching service.

In Supt. Dunn and his wife, who is the matron, the Home has ideal officers. Mrs. L. A. W. Cumback cannot be excelled as a principal for the schools and as far as our judgment goes each one bearing responsibility at the Home is competent to fill the place occupied. Four trustees, sixteen governesses and seventeen heads of departments share the work of managing the Institution. We ate a lunch, the hack was announced, we bade goodby to our hosts and each received a box of flowers and were whirled away to the station feeling that we had spent a most delightful season and had been made to realize what is being done at one of our State Institutions to promote good citizenship.

We most sincerely thank our worthy president for the honor conferred in choosing us to make this visit and only regret that we cannot report all that we saw and enjoyed.

Motion moved and carried unanimously, that telegram of sympathy be sent our Past National President, Etta Lee Toby, and Sister Elizabeth Howard was instructed to send same.

The guard announced that Comrade C. W. Wheeler, of Princeton, was at the door. Sister Florence Myers, his daughter, escorted her father to the platform, and he was obligated into our order by Sister Jennie Irvine, (Sister Irvine's husband was a member of Comrade Wheeler's company.

Mattie Miller, Delegate at large, gave a very interesting report of the National Convention held at Washington, D. C. as follows:

REPORT OF DELEGATE-AT-LARGE

To the officers and members of the Twenty-third Annual Convention, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic:

One year ago, this body very graciously accorded me the honor of election to the National Convention as Delegate at large.

With Department President Mae Lonberger, Past Department President Elizabeth Howard and her husband and a few comrade friends we left Logansport Sept. 26th, at 1:25 p. m. for our National Capitol.

The train sped Washington-ward through rain which ceased the latter part of the night, leaving the air crisp and clear when we awoke, as we were nearing Pittsburg, Penn. The scenery between Pittsburg and Harrisburg, Penn., was beautiful. We changed to day-coach at Harrisburg and found it very crowded but all in the coach were saying "On to Washington" and we had a jolly time. Ere we hardly realized it we were near our journey's end, and by 3 p. m. Sept. 27th we were ensconced in our beautiful and commodious Department Headquarters at Raleigh Hotel on Pennsylvania avenue.

After refreshing our outward appearance we paid our respects to the National Officers at the National Headquarters, New Willard Hotel.

Many visitors called at our Headquarters in the evening, then about 10 p. m. when we thought to retire, Sister Julia McCorkle came in and reminded us of futher duties, as Indiana ladies. So we donned our reception garments and went down to the second floor where Indiana "Boys in Blue" had their Headquarters, and there former residents of Indiana, but now residents of Washington, were giving all Hoosiers a hearty welcome. Among those to welcome us were Levi Fouts and wife, who gave us every courtesy possible during our entire stay.

Tuesday morning at 10 p. m. we left by steamer for Mt. Vernon, the great home estate of George Washington. The estate is owned and preserved by the Mt. Vernon Ladies Association, and well kept. The buildings which are in the rear of the sacred mansion are made of wood, cut and painted to resemble stone. In the house we found all the furniture well preserved, portraits, china, silver-service, etc. We noted especially the bed in which Washington died and the crane in the great fire-place, the spinning wheel, the old coach, and the tomb of Washington. The tomb is a severely plain structure of brick almost covered with ivy, with an arched gate-way in front. Above the iron-gate-door are the words "I am the resurrection and the Life; he that believeth on me shall not perish, but have eternal life," inside the tomb can be seen two marble coffins, the one on the right bearing Washington's name and on the left that of his wife.

After passing through the flower-garden, surrounded by quaint boxwood hedges, we took trolley to Arlington National Cemetery on the Virginia hills beyond the Potomac from Washington. Here sleep more than 16,000 soldiers, who died on battlefield to save our Country, and the day we were there all that remained of fourteen of the F4 victims were placed under the sod with proper services. Our Federal City and National Cemetery stand here close together and look each upon the other. For if it must needs have been, that the men who rest at Arlington should die for their Country, what more fitting than that in the bivouac of the long night they should sleep on the heights over-looking our Capitol itself, close to the heart of the Nation they gave their lives for. The art of the landscape gardener aided much by Nature has beautified the surroundings; there are flower-beds and lawns and a profusion of ornamental trees and shrubs.

The Congressional Library, which covers nearly $3\frac{1}{2}$ acres of ground, was our destination Tuesday evening. Hours could be spent in telling of this wonderful building. Days could be spent just viewing the interior—a vision of polished stone—noting the quotations and inscriptions on walls and ceilings. On the walls of the landing between the first and second floors is a large mosaic panel, "The Goddess of Wisdom" which is a wonder, I am unable to describe.

The Second Grand Review, Wednesday, Indiana ladies were highly favored with seats, being next to President Wilson and his party in the reviewing stand on Pennsylvania avenue adjoining the White House grounds. More than 20,000 G. A. R. Veterans marched down the same avenue they did on that first Grand Review at the close of the Civil War, May 24 and 25, 1865.

It was sad to see this remnant of a victorious army as it passed the stand occupied by the President. Bent backs straightened and feeble steps grew more spry as every eye turned towards the chief executive at the command "Eyes Left." Major General Nelson Miles, grand marshal of the parade, and the staff ten abreast, followed the Cavalry Band. The Army and Navy Regulars, next, made a fine appearance. The jackies marching twenty-five abreast. The District Soldiers or National Guards were in their new dress uniform and every movement was perfection. The mounts of the cavalry men seemed to have almost human intelligence. The yellow trimmings of the cavalry men contrasted beautifully with blue uniforms and white caps of the bluejackets.

More than 70 bands and drum corps furnished music for the marching host. The "Grandsons" fife and drum corps of Washington, 100 strong, furnished music for the official escort of the G. A. R's. U. S. Grant Post, of New York, headed by the Marine band, was the honorary escort to the Commander-in-Chief, David J. Palmer, of Iowa. Then came the Grand Army Veterans marching by states, Illinois, the home of the first established G. A. R. Post, at the head. Wisconsin, carrying the effigy of the war eagle "Old Abe," came next and Ohio third. McKinley Post, of Ohio, with the largest American Flag in the world carried vertically by 100 men; next a young lady in white carried two large flags.

"As I looked 50 years ago"—a comrade dressed as he was then, caught the fancy of the crowd, and cheers upon cheers were given him.

There were many old tattered battle-flags, not flung to the breeze but wrapped securely around flag-staffs.

The parade started promptly at 10 a. m. and lasted until 3 p. m. in a continuous march, so we were glad at 4 p. m. to be served our dinners. Wednesday evening we made an attempt to be admitted to the Reception at the Capitol but things prevented and at a later hour we attended the Reception which the Ladies of the G. A. R. tendered Commander-in-Chief David J. Palmer at the handsome New Willard Hotel. Mrs. Lottie

Johnson was official hostess, assisted by the National and Past National Official and Department Presidents.

The Convention opened Thursday, Sept. 30, 1915, the call was for 9 o'clock but it was 11 a. m. when the gavel sounded. Sister Burnes, of Chicago, and Sister Allison, of Indiana, performed the duties of conductor and assistant conductor. Sister Lee, of Illinois, and Sister White, of Wisconsin were appointed guards.

The Department of Washington desired their color bearer, Glory Taylor, who is 88 years of age to act in the same capacity in this Convention, but National President declared there was no such office, therefore she could not appoint her.

National Patriotic Instructor Sarah J. Ehrman and conductors retired and presented the flag of our Country, which was followed by spirited discussion on the proper way of presentation.

The order of business as read by National Secretary Genevieve H. S. Lane of Chicago, was accepted. The President then appointed her committees. Sister Mae Lonberger, our Department President was placed on "Committee on Other Reports." Sister Etta Lee Toby, of Chicago, on the courtesy committee. Sister Olive I. Allison our National Treasurer, of Richmond, on the Reception Committee.

The Credential Committee reported 597 delegates entitled to vote. Delegates from Idaho and Mississippi absent.

The roll-call of officers showed all present but Dr. Martin, of the National Council, who it was later learned had taken very ill on her way to the Convention and then lay in a hospital in New York. Later her expenses of $160.00 were allowed her.

Mrs. William Andrews, of Washington, chairman of the Ladies Citizens Committee, presented luncheon tickets and identification badges for President Wilson's Reception for us at the White House.

Committee from Sons of Veterans were admitted, one being National Patriotic Instructor Pennerman, of Massachusetts, who said of all organizations of which he was a member, the Grand Army and Ladies of the Grand Army towered above them all. In about three hours, he said, he would be a "has been," but he was very much an "isser" now.

At 12 o'clock we adjourned for luncheon to meet immediately after President Wilson's Reception which he tendered us in the White House from 2 to 4 p. m. For two hours President Wilson greeted all visiting organizations in the famous East Room.

The Thursday afternoon session was called to order at 3:30. All National Officers were introduced to the Convention. The Department of California and Nevada presented a picture of the "Liberty Bell" to the Convention, which must be displayed at each National Convention. Reports of all National Officers were read. We then adjourned to meet at 8 p. m. when the Department of Wisconsin presented an exemplification of the ritualistic work they wished to have adopted by Convention, but Convention declined to make any change.

Friday morning 8:55 the Convention opened with few of the officers and delegates in their places. Past National Secretary as Chairman of Council of Administration made report, followed by Registrar's report. Registrar said every Department had sent in complete lists of members.

Past National President Laura McNeis, editor of our "Bugle Call," in her concise report said she sends "Bugle Call" to every Circle and it is the property of the Circle and not of the person to whom it is sent. The cost of publication of same is a little less than $89.00 per month.

Sister Edith Bravere, National Counselor, who was appointed at previous Convention to furnish and maintain a Ladies of G. A. R. Rest Room in the Varied Industries Building at San Diego and in the California Building at San Francisco, reported that out of the $200.00 allowed for the same she had $73.25 left.

The report of Advisory Council was next. Out of the 63 questions, about one-half were not approved.

Greetings from the G. A. R. were conveyed to us by Senator James, of Wisconsin, who favors "Woman's Rights" and said, in his remarks. "Our organization passed a resolution to ask Congress to erect a monument to Clara Barton, that monuments are erected to those who destroyed lives and none to those who saved them and that I would never lay down and quit until the widows receive as much pension as I do, and that is $25.00 a month."

The first decision of Council was that no two from same Department could serve on Council. The National Patriotic Instructor was instructed to purchase a silk flag and present to the church and Sunday School in whose building we held our meetings. That an official flag may have fringe upon it. That there must be at least three black balls in the ballot box.

That a Circle Registrar cannot serve as Department Registrar.

That the ballot box should be placed on the flag in front of the Bible.

That we indorse the Women's National Made in the U. S. A. League.

That it is no law but a courtesy for sisters to remove their hats in circle meetings.

That it would be impossible to secure enough badges to send one to each of the absent Past Department Presidents.

That the Department Secretary should be the custodian of Department Seal.

Then followed a long discussion in regard to devising some way by which the daughters of a comrade living in Arizona could become a member of some circle. Left unanswered.

A committee from Daughters of Veterans were received to bring their greetings, after which the minutes of council were disposed of and we adjourned for luncheon, which was again a compliment from the Washington committee.

Friday 2:15 p. m.—First a comittee from W. R. C. with greetings were admitted, after which we suspended the order of business and went into the election of officers. Officers elected are as follows:

National President—Catherine De Lacy Roche, of Penn.

Senior Vice President—Sister Tarbox, of Maine.

Junior Vice President—Sister Hendrix, of Washington.

Treasurer—Sister Allison, of Indiana.

Chaplain—Sister Browne, of Tennessee.

Counselor—Sister Jameson, of Wisconsin.

Council of Administration—Sister Lane, North, and Loomis.

Council of Administration—Sisters Lane, North, and Loomis.

After much discussion the Editor of Bugle Call's salary remains the same $50.00 per month. A motion that slips be printed to be pasted in Department Installation books for the purpose of Installing Patriotic Instructors, was adopted. One hundred dollars was set aside for patriotic work.

The recommendation that eligibility blanks be sent out to Department Registrars the first of each quarter, was adopted. About midnight the newly elected officers, and Anna De Lacy Peele as Secretary and Lillian Clark Cary as Patriotic Instructor were installed by Past National President, Ella S. Jones.

A rising vote of thanks was given Mattie Miller, of Indiana, and Marion Bradbury, of Massachusetts, for acting as pianists during the convention, also to Loverna North, of Washington, for her assistance as reading clerk.

Sister Roche made a very pretty little speech, and Chaplain Jennie Brown prayed for our guidance and protection. The members then sang one verse of "My Country 'Tis of Thee" and at 12:45 a. m. Saturday the Twenty-ninth National Convention of the Ladies of the G. A. R. closed. Following are statistics from National Secretary and Treasurer's report:

GREETINGS AND LETTERS

Cleveland, O. May 6, 1916.

Miss Mae Lonberger,

Department President, Ladies of the G. A. R., Officers and Members Assembled in Convention:

Greetings from your sister state—Ohio!

At this time I am reminded of the hearty sisterly welcome I received when I extended Ohio's greetings in person at your convention held in Kokomo some few years ago.

Many warm friendships have been formed since that convention which, I trust, will continue as we travel down life's path-way.

I also seize this, my first opportunity, to congratulate the Department of Indiana on the honor conferred upon them by the Twenty-ninth National Convention in electing one of your members, Sister Olive I. Allison, our National Treasurer.

With very best wishes for a pleasant and beneficial session

MAE WARFEL
Department Chaplain

and assuring you I shall be with your convention in thought.
I am,

Sincerely, in F. C. & L.

ANNA E. HIGGINS

Knightstown, Ind., April 22, 1916.

Miss Elizabeth Howey,

Dept. Secy., Indiana Dept., Ladies of the G. A. R.

516 N. Seventh St., Lafayette, Indiana.

My Dear Miss Howey:

There came a time when the Ladies of the G. A. R. seemed to question whether they were doing the best thing possible with the Christmas money they collected for the children of the Home by investing it in candy for them, and they wrote earnest inquiries to me as to whether it would not be better to buy toys, etc. I replied to them, pressing strongly upon them my personal feeling that nothing else could possibly take the place of the great candy treats which their generosity has provided Christmas after Christmas, and I still maintain that any change would result in serious disappointment to the children, who are the recipients of this marked generosity. If the motto, "Let well enough alone," fits anywhere, it applies finely to this candy proposition. The method of handling the Christmas candy last Christmas, was the finest thing in its line that the Home has ever seen. The candy came already put up in pretty packages and each box labeled with the name of the child to whom it was to be given. This greatly simplified the work at this end of the line besides making the present very much more attractive. If the Ladies of the G. A. R. can continue the plan used last Christmas, it will meet with great favor here.

Very sincerely yours,

TEMPLE H. DUNN,

Superintendent.

Knightstown, Ind., Apr. 10, 1916.

My Dear Mrs. Manson:

The shower of glorious flags sent to our school from the Ladies of the G. A. R. is the most beautiful group of flags I have ever seen. They are beautifully made, and the size and number makes a peculiar patriotic appeal that with all my experience with patriotic work, I have never felt before. This feeling is shared by all the children and teachers in our school. Will you in your own gracious way express our deepest appreciation of this gift to all who have made it possible?

Thanking you, my dear friend, for this another proof of your loyalty and love to this Institution, I am always,

Sincerely your friend

L. A. W. CUMBACK

Knightstown, Ind., April 12, 1916.

Mrs. Mae Lonberger, Attica Indiana.

My Dear Friend:

Possibly you will be pleased to know that I am right now engaged in stenciling, on white ribbon, for our new flags the expression, Presented to the I. S. & S. O. Home, 1916, by the Ladies of the G. A. R., Grade I etc. This ribbon reaches across the flag where the white band is placed at the field end and will be easily read as the flag hangs with the field upward. Mrs. Cumback is arranging for the dedication of these flags. We are very proud of them and I am glad to notify you of the pains we are taking, to keep them in the best condition possible.

The Sons of Veterans and their Auxiliary and possibly the Womans' Relief Corps, will be here on the 27th and we shall have our flags flying at that time.

Very sincerely yours,

TEMPLE H. DUNN

Superintendent.

Lafayette, Indiana, May 8, 1916.

To the Officers and Members of the Twenty-third Annual Department Convention:

Dear Sister: Am very sorry that I cannot be with you. This will be the second Convention in all the years since the Department was organized, that I have not been with you. But, if I cannot be with you in person I will be with you in heart, and hope for you all a happy and harmonious Convention. With love to all my Dear Sisters,

MRS. JOHN W. GRAVES,

Past Dept. President.

Attica, Indiana, May 9, 1916.

To the Department President, officers and members of the Twenty-third Annual Convention.

Dear Sisters: Words fail to express my disappointment in not being able to be with you this year. First, my health is poor, then too, my sister past 87 years has a broken arm, and my niece now visiting me was taken quite ill; and I feel my duty is at home. While I regret very much, that I cannot be with you, I know my absence will be approved by the Convention. Wishing you all a happy and enjoyable Convention,

I remain,

Your trusting Sister in F. C. & L.

Entertained the 46th Indiana, Oct. 15, at a banquet, at which time I had the honor of obligating into our beloved order Dept. Com. Lewis King of Franklin, presenting him with a gold pin, the emblem of the G. A. R.

In Oct. we purchased a new piano $275, which all but $75 has been paid by our monthly coffees, held the last meeting in each month. I had the pleasure of inspecting two Circles, McKinley of Flora and John A. Logan, of Lafayette, and I wish to express my love and thanks to these Circles who so cordially received me. A poem, written by one of our Sisters, Mrs. Kern was dedicated and presented to our Circle.

Organized a Camp of Sons of Veterans, known as John A. Logan No. 48 with a charter membership of 104.

They were mustered in by the Dept. Com. Sons of Veterans, A. W. McDaniels of Valparaiso. At this time I obligated Mr. McDaniels in our order.

Held Memorial Services in our room for our departed Sisters, and the 2nd Tuesday in June is laid aside for decorating our Sisters graves. 75 attended Memorial Services Sunday preceding Decoration Day.

1st and 2nd Sundays in June, we expect to hold services and decorate the Soldiers graves in Clinton township and Clymers station, placing an iron marker on each grave.

Have used 16 flags on departed comrades. Since our organization we have lost by death 33 Sisters.

The year just closing death has claimed 4, and at the present the death angel is hovering over one more.

We are planning as usual to make bouquets for our Decoration Day.

Several sisters having reached the age of 65, we have presented them with a star, the emblem of our order.

We were delightfully entertained at a banquet given by Gen. Lawton Circle, of Monticello, to which we all did justice.

In closing I wish prosperity to every Circle, and I would say sisters, let us each remember our obligation. The spirit of harmony and sisterly love prevails in our Circle and I say God bless Lincoln No. 1,

Yours in F. C. & L.,

PEARL WRIGHT

President.

MINNIE PARSONS

LOYAL CIRCLE NO. 42.

Darlington, Ind., May 1, 1916.

To the Officers and Members of the Twenty-third Annual Convention, of Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Indiana.

Dear Sisters:

It is with pleasure that I submit the following report of Loyal Circle No. 42. It is doing very good work. We have twenty-four members in good standing. We will give the obligation to two more sons in our next meeting. We have one son and five comrades. We have gained three new members during our last quarter. We have also buried two comrades in the last quarter. In all we have lost five comrades. Some of these were not obligated, however, but we buried them with honors.

On last Decoration Day we used nearly one hundred and fifty flags. We decorated all out-of-town cemeteries on Sunday before Decoration Day. A large delegation followed us to the cemeteries, and large crowds waited for us at every step. Darlington is voted as having the best Decoration Day exercises for its size of any town in the state since taking up the work. It leaves nothing undone to make it a day long to be remembered. Good music, good speakers, and a good program is always prepared. Our program this year promises to be better than ever. A good band has been selected, and a program as well.

We will observe Memorial Day with a good sermon and special music. We have asked all the churches to observe Mothers Day the second Sunday in May, with special programs, and every one is to wear a white Carnation for mother.

We are constantly giving food sales, and have given several bazars. We have bought a piano, and are striving hard to pay for it. When a sister or comrade gets sick, we always send cards of sympathy, and flowers.

We have entertained with several six-o'clock dinners, and each member not able to attend always gets a nice share of the eats, as we remember them first. We have spent ten dollars for flowers for the sick and dead. At present we are planning an old time song concert in order to raise money for Decoration Day expenses. We visited the schools here and taught the salute and pledge to the flag to the pupils. The teachers appreciated it very much, and thanked us for it. The national songs are sung in all the schools every morning, and flags are on the walls in every room. On Centennial day the eighth grade presented the high school with a handsome big wool and linen flag. We had the eighth grade give the flag salute and pledge to the flag. The president of the Loyal Circle gave "The Flag We Love" which brought forth many cheers.

Wishing our sister orders prosperity and good cheer for the coming year,

We remain in F. C. & L.

McKINLEY CIRCLE, NO. 44.

Bringhurst, Indiana.

To the Officers and Members of the Twenty-third Annual Convention, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Dear Sisters:

I beg to submit the following report; during the past year from May 1st to May 1st, McKinley has not been able to gain much. Have lost some by honorable discharge on account of distance away, and while we lost our gains placed us with the usual number of members, 51 in all.

There are always a faithful few at circle meetings and if by work on the part of the regular ones we can rouse more to come we will feel repaid.

For the first time on Memorial Day, we invited the school children to march with us and there were 75 children responded, each carrying flag.

Our circle held Parcel Post sale during year, netting us over $10.00. We sent a barrel of canned fruit and jellies to Knightstown Home. Gave a dinner and social on Feb. 12th, which was well attended. Had 20 comrades present one of whom was at Andersonville prison survivor, and related a part of the story.

We have placed five flags during year on soldiers' breasts. While we feel weak, we trust for more strength this time another year. With good will and wishes to all,

I remain, in F. C. & L.

Protect Our Flag

Mrs. A. T. Kern

One morning while yet in slumberland
A guiding spirit clasped my hand;
We soared away o'er land and sea;
A commanding voice seemed calling me
Until, I saw a wonderous gate.
My spirit guide said: "Watch and wait,
The loyal and true will greet you here
Glorified spirits, you need not fear."
Then behold! I saw the gate ajar—
Soldiers were gathering from near and far;
The flag for which they fought and died,
They held aloft with conscious pride.

Washington led that grand array;
He turned to me, and thus did say:
"Daughter of the Revolution, my message take
To the country I love, for my love's sake.
It gives me to see our flag unfurl
To lure and deceive, destruction hurl
To protect our flag; give greater length
To the arm of law—gird it with strength.
Those who are fighting, are our brothers still,
Don't give them weapons wherewith to kill;
They are fighting for power and nations to sever;
We fought for freedom and union forever."

The dear face of Lincoln I knew at a glance.
He corrected our prayers and talked finance;
He gave this message: "Be careful and wise;
Guard all your interests with watchful eyes.
Praying for peace, doesn't do any good
Unless you do the things you should;

Your prayers for peace, while making guns
Don't please the Lord, He knows they're puns."
He told how he tried, in darkening days,
For our country's need, some money to raise
England asked more interest than was right to pay;
Lincoln "shin plasters!"—they saved the day.

The father and savior of our dear land:
Washington and Lincoln, stood hand in hand;
They bade me Godspeed—this message to give:
"Protect our flag, that our nation may live."
To Comrades and Ladies of the G. A. R.
Who love every stripe and every star,
I dedicate this plea: For the Red, White and Blue,
They will understand, that my vision is true.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 2.

Attica, Ind., Oct. 25, 1915.

I. I desire first of all, to extend my heartfelt thanks for the many kind letters and good wishes I have received since entering upon my duties. I find the work very fascinating and helpful.

Am glad to report a rapid growth in our membership and especially glad to see so many young people ready to step into the ranks which our worthy sisters before us have ask us to fill. May we do our work as well as they in perpetuating the memory of those who offered up their lives for us.

II. We desire to give expression of our loss of one faithful sister,—Sister Ermina Sawtelle, Past President of S. W. Stark Circle of Ft. Wayne,—by asking that each circle charter be draped for thirty days. We feel that our loss is her gain.

III. Again, I want to ask you not to neglect sending your contribution for the Knightstown Home Christmas fund. Send remittances to Department Secretary Elizabeth Howey, 516 N. Seventh street, Lafayette not later than December 1st, but make check payable to Department Treasurer Rebecca E. Hollis, 911 W. Van Trees street, Washington.

IV. Election day is drawing near, and I beg of you to lay aside personal friendship on this day and do your part by voting for the one most capable to fill office, for in doing so you will be building on a firm foundation that will enable us to add many more to our membership.

You also elect your delegate to Department Convention on this day. One delegate for every twenty-five members or a fraction over half that number in good standing on September 30th. Your retiring Secretary sends election returns in full to the Department Secretary immediately after election.

V. In a few weeks our national Thanksgiving holiday will be here and we earnestly desire to thank our Heavenly Father, as one great and happy Grand Army family, for the many blessings He has bestowed upon us; and we, as individuals on this sacred holiday, should do our part toward seeing that not one comrade or his dependent ones feel the need of the necessities of life. Show him the respect and appreciation due him as a veteran of that Grand Army which we honor.

Let us not forget to fittingly observe the birthdays of our immortal Lincoln and Washington for they afford some of the very best opportunities of the year to instill the lessons of patriotism.

VI. If death has entered your circle and one of your members has "crossed the bar," we have set the last meeting in December for each circle to hold memorial service for the departed; and though a link of the chain of our beloved circle may be broken we should feel that those who have gone from us have gained more than we have lost for they have but passed on into the future life where God reigns and all is good.

VII. Before I send out another General Order another anniversary of our Savior will have passed and I wish to extend to one and all my sincere good wishes for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

VIII. Again I thank you for your many kind letters and the courtesies extended me and I desire to remain, Loyally yours, in F. C. and L.

MAE LONBERGER,

Department President.

ELIZABETH HOWEY,

Department Secretary.

VII. Our ever-sacred Memorial Day is fast approaching and with sad hearts we realize that our comrades are dropping from the ranks very rapidly. It is earnestly desired that every sister will do her part on this day and

"As long as the sky shall bend above
Long as the hero's flag shall wave,
Long as the soul of man shall love,
We'll decorate our soldier's grave."

In issuing this, my last General Order, I desire to express my sincere gratitude and love to those that have proved so loyal to the cause we are trying to perpetuate and for the many kindnesses shown me. I feel that I have not accomplished what I had hoped to but I assure you I have tried to do my best and I trust you will be just as kind and loyal to my successor as you have been to me.
